The Honorable Gregory M. Sleet
United States District Court
844 North King Street
Wilmington, DE 19801

Re: Transmeta Corporation v. Intel Corporation, C.A. No. 06-633-GMS

Dear Judge Sleet:

I am writing on behalf of defendant Intel Corporation to explain the stipulation filed today that seeks an extension of time to respond to the complaint, through and including December 15, 2006. December 15 represents an extension of approximately 45 days beyond the date to respond set in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Intel requested the extension from plaintiff because the complaint accuses five different Intel product lines of infringement of 10 United States patents with 311 claims. The number and complexity of Transmeta's allegations makes the investigation of the complaint and of the prosecution histories much more complex than would exist in a more traditional infringement action.

Should Your Honor have any questions or concerns, counsel for Intel are available at the Court's convenience.

Respectfully submitted,

John W. Shaw (No. 3362)
